

Wondering what to do this summer?

Study and Intern in Toulouse, France!

Hurry! Two $1,500 scholarships available!
Application deadline:
February 15th

Earn 6 credits while studying French and European agricultural practices. No French skills required!

Courses include:

- Survival French
- European agriculture
- European animal production
- Crop production
- Food processing
- Viticulture and enology

Intern with a family-operated agri-business or vineyard.

Placements include:

- Animal Production
- Agro-Tourism
- Plant Production
- Vineyards/ Wineries

For more information contact
Miranda Roberts: robertsm@wsu.edu
Bryan Hall 105
<http://www.ip.wsu.edu/edabroad>